Article 15 A meeting of the Committee may only be held if it is attended by more than two thirds of the members of the Committee. Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. Resolutions will be made at the meeting only if they are approved by more than half of all the members.

Article 16 Members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee and exercise voting rights either in person or by proxy.

Article 17 The member of the Committee who attends the meeting of the Committee and exercises voting rights by proxy shall submit to the presider of the meeting the power of attorney. And the latest time to submit the power of attorney shall be before the voting procedure of the meeting.

Article 18 The content of the power of attorney shall state the following:

- (1) the name of the principal;
- (2) the name of the proxy;
- (3) the entrusted matters;
- (4) the term of authorization;
- (5) the instruction on how to exercise the voting rights (i.e. for, against, abstain) in respect of the proposals of the meeting and the declaration about whether the proxy can vote based on his own decision when there is no specific instruction; and
- (6) the signature of the principal and the signing date.

Article 19 Members of the Committee will be considered absent from the meeting of the Committee if they fail to attend in person or by proxy. The members who are absent from the meetings of the Committee twice consecutively will be deemed unable to perform their duties and may be removed from the Committee by the board of directors.

Article 20 Voting at the meetings of the Committee may be by show of hands or poll. Voting at extraordinary meetings may be by correspondence.

Article 21 If the Committee deems necessary, it may invite directors, supervisors and senior management to attend the meetings.

Article 22 The Committee may, if necessary, engage an intermediary to provide professional advice on its decision-making, and all the expenses thereof shall be borne by the Company.

Article 23 A member of the Committee shall abstain from discussing and voting on the subject matters referring to him/her.

Article 24 The convening procedures of the meetings of the Committee, the voting methods and the proposals to be passed at the meetings must comply with provisions of relevant laws, regulations, the Articles of Association and these Terms of Reference.

Article 25 The Committee shall keep minutes of its meetings, which shall be signed by the members of the Committee present at the meeting. If a member of the Committee has expressed any dissenting opinions on the meeting minutes concerning false records, misstatement or omissions, his/her signature is not necessarily required, but his/her written opinions shall be submitted to the secretary to the board of directors in the given time mentioned above. Once the false records, misstatement or omissions in the meeting minutes are confirmed, correction should be made by the secretary to the board of directors, and the corrected meeting minutes shall be signed by the members of the Committee. The secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible for the preservation of the meeting minutes which shall last for 10 years.

The minutes of a Committee meeting shall specify:

- (1) The date and venue of the meeting and the name of the convener;
- (2) The names of the attendees and notes specifically added to the proxies;
- (3) The agenda of the meeting;
- (4) Summaries of the speeches of the Committee members;
- (5) The voting method and result for each proposal (the voting result shall set out the respective numbers of pros, cons and abstentions);

(6) Other issues that should be included into the minutes.

Article 26 Proposals approved at the meetings of the Committee and the voting results thereon shall be reported to the board of directors in writing.

Article 27 Members attending the meetings of the Committee shall have the obligation to keep confidential and not to disclose, without proper authorization, any of the matters discussed at the meeting.

Chapter 6 Supplementary Provisions

Article 28 These Terms of Reference shall come into effect on the date on which it is considered and approved by the board of directors.

Article 29 Matters not included herein shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the country's laws, regulations and the Articles of Association. In the case of any conflict between these Terms and the country's laws and regulations to be promulgated thereafter or any duly and legally amended Articles of Association, the latter shall prevail and these Terms shall be forthwith amended in accordance with the latter and submitted to the board of directors of the Company for consideration and approval.

Article 30 The right to formulate, revise and interpret these Terms shall vest in the board of directors of the Company.

Article 31 These Terms of Reference are written in Chinese, and this English version is provided for reference purpose only. In the case of any inconsistency between the Chinese version and the English version, the Chinese version shall prevail.
